

Photo by Anita and Steve Shevett.
 Courtesy of New York Performing Artist Company

Alexia Productions presents

Samara
of New York

In one day workshop teaching a Turkish Gypsy Dance

Sulukule is a legendary district of Istanbul famous for Rom (Gypsy) music and dance. Here the traditions of the gypsy live on. Traditional Turkish Gypsy dance is displaced by oriental dance in urban nightclubs, but still performed at all Gypsy weddings and gatherings.

Sunday Nov 29th 10:30am @ Knox Dance Worx

Hafla @ Mirage 7:30pm

tickets for show and dinner will be available Contact:
 alexia@alexia-dance.com
 977-6761
 www.alexia-dance.com

Mark your calendars now for the Mohamed Shahin workshop May 1-2, 2010

To reserve your space in workshop, please fill out the attached form and mail with check or money order made payable to:

Alexia Smith: 1563 Crestwood Drive, Louisville, TN 37777

Name

Address

City State ZipCode

Home phone Cell..... Email

Amount Enclosed $

SUNDAY DANCE CLASS ON 11-29-09 $70 in advance* or $80 at the door

Ticket for dinner and show $15

Mail before 11-20-09 to receive Early Bird Discount ($70)

Sunday November 29th:

Registration 10am - Class 10:30am - 12:30pm and 1:30 - 3:30pm with one hour lunch break at Knox Dance Worx, 10541 Kingston Pike 37922

Must take the workshop in order to dance in the Hafla at Mirage!

Note: Wear full skirts and bring tambourines if you have